

Programme:

Thursday, November 19

8-10pm Debate at the Cambridge Union Society

This House believes that the banking bailout was a waste of money: how investing in innovative green and consumer internet businesses will do more for the economy

10pm Networking Reception for those who have attended the debate.

Friday, November 20

9am – 5pm Masterclasses for students at Judge Business School

- Panel Discussion A: What is more important? Science or a Market? Does the answer depend on whether or not you are coming from the US or European VC scene?
- Panel Discussion B: science behind the fast – growth companies. What is happening that is new and innovative?
- Panel Discussion C: Key things the vcs are looking for in Green and Consumer internet start-ups at the moment and Why...
- Panel Discussion D: People behind the fast-growth companies. What are the critical success factors behind their ventures?
- Panel Discussion E: How important was your academic discipline to your entrepreneurial success? If it wasn't key, what was?

Networking reception to follow the Masterclasses.

Saturday, November 21

9:45am – 12pm CEO Workshops on [finding investors] [networking] [putting teams together]